

Do You Need Skilled People?

Think outside the box for your hiring needs

Discover Job Corps' trained professionals

Even in the down economy, the apartment industry needs good people. The challenge is finding trained and qualified people who will go the distance for your company.

With 122 Job Corps Centers spread across 48 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico, Job Corps is uniquely positioned to provide a pipeline of talent to National Apartment Association members.

Job Corps has the trained facilities maintenance technicians that the apartment industry needs.

Job Corps training program covers a wide range of employability skills aimed at preparing students for the workplace through hands-on facilities maintenance training. Job Corps students can be hired on a Work-Based Learning basis or full-time after graduation or before graduation.
