

ARTICLE I - NAME

- Section 1. The name or title by which this Association shall be known is the National Apartment Association, or in short form, "NAA."

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

- Section 1. To foster, promote, encourage, and develop the best interests of members in the rental housing industry.
- Section 2. To represent members in political and economic areas.
- Section 3. To develop and provide members with educational opportunities that relate to the conduct of their business and to the rental housing industry.
- Section 4. To promote and support local and state affiliated apartment associations.
- Section 5. To research, develop, publish, and disseminate information and data on the rental housing industry to NAA's membership and the general public.
- Section 6. To encourage within the rental housing industry an appreciation of the objectives and responsibilities of its members providing adequate housing.
- Section 7. To promote the enactment and enforcement of local, state, and federal laws and regulations beneficial to the rental housing industry.
- Section 8. To advocate high professional standards and sound business practices among members for the best interests of the rental housing industry and the public.
- Section 9. To function cooperatively with national and international associations within the rental housing industry.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

- Section 1. Affiliate Member. An affiliate member is any owner, developer, builder, operator, or manager of rental housing who is a member in good standing of an Affiliated Local Association in the defined geographic area where the affiliate member's apartment units are located, or supplier who is a member in good standing of an Affiliated Local Association, who provides services or products to such rental housing providers.
- Section 2. Direct Member. A direct member is any owner, developer, builder, operator, or manager that in the normal conduct of business, provides rental housing to the general public or a provider of services or products to such rental housing providers. A direct member must be located within a geographic area, which is not served by either an Affiliated Local Association, Affiliated State Association or Affiliated International Association.

Section 3. International Member. An international member is any owner, developer, builder, operator, or manager, that in the normal conduct of business, provides rental housing to the general public or a provider of services or products to such rental housing providers, or an association which represents those interests, located outside the United States.

ARTICLE IV – AFFILIATED ASSOCIATIONS

Section 1. Local Affiliated Associations. The Board of Directors of the Association may vote to grant a charter to any local association, owned or controlled by its members, that complies with these Bylaws and NAA Policies & Procedures.

Section 2. State Affiliated Associations. The Board of Directors of the Association may vote to grant a charter to a State Association, owned or controlled by its members that complies with these Bylaws and NAA Policies & Procedures. A State Association shall provide that all of the local affiliated associations in such state must be and continue to be affiliated with the chartered state association and NAA.

Section 3. International Affiliated Associations. The Board of Directors of the Association may vote to grant a charter to any association outside the United States, owned or controlled by its members that complies with these Bylaws and NAA Policies & Procedures.

Section 4. Membership. No Affiliated Association shall apply any limitation on membership nor adopt any rule, regulation, practice, or policy inconsistent with or contrary to any policy by NAA.

Section 5. Membership Lists. Each Affiliated Association must submit to NAA a membership list that includes all members of any category for which the affiliate collects dues.

Section 6. Revocation of Charter. NAA may terminate the charter of any affiliated association for any reason including violations of these Bylaws. Except for termination pursuant to Article V Section 3, the termination shall become effective upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors, after due process, provided however, that the holder of the terminated charter may note an appeal to the Assembly of Delegates within 10 days of the Board's action. The Appeal shall be considered at the next meeting of the Assembly of Delegates.

Section 7. Violations. Upon discovery that an affiliated association has operated in violation of the Association's Bylaws and/or Policies & Procedures, the NAA President and the Executive Committee shall communicate with the affiliate to attempt to bring the affiliate into compliance. If that effort is unsuccessful, the matter will be referred to the NAA Board of Directors for action.

ARTICLE V - DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

Section 1. Assessment. The amount of dues and/or other assessments owing NAA and provisions for payment thereof, shall be determined by the Board of Directors with approval from the Assembly of Delegates.

Section 2. Collection. Unless otherwise directed by the Board of Directors, each Affiliated Association shall be responsible for the collection and payment of NAA dues, educational fees, and any other sums due NAA, from its members and shall report and remit such dues, educational fees, and any other sums due NAA as collected.

Section 3. Delinquency. Upon failure to pay all sums due NAA, within sixty (60) days after the same shall become due, all member and affiliated association services and privileges shall, upon written notice, be suspended. Failure to remit sums due to NAA, within ninety (90) days after the same shall become due will result in charter termination upon written notice thereof without the procedures set forth in Article IV – Affiliated Association, Section 6 of these Bylaws. The Board of Directors, by majority vote, may waive the termination of membership for up to two (2) additional consecutive ninety (90) day periods.

Section 4. Membership Records. The Board of Directors of the NAA shall have the authority and right to audit records of Affiliated Associations to ascertain whether they are accurately reporting all of the respective required information and are operating in compliance with NAA Bylaws and Policies & Procedures.

ARTICLE VI - REGIONS & REGIONAL VICE PRESIDENTS

Section 1. Regions. The Affiliated Local and State Associations of NAA shall be divided into regions. These regions may be changed to fit changing patterns of membership. Any regional change must be approved by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Assembly of Delegates. International Affiliates shall be assigned a region based on proximity at the time of charter approval.

Section 2. Regional Vice Presidents. Each region shall elect one Regional Vice President (RVP). Each region may also elect one additional non-voting Regional Vice President (RVP) who may act and vote at a NAA Board meeting in the absence of the voting RVP. In addition, the delegates in Regions paying the first and second highest percentage of national dues, as outlined in the Policies & Procedures, shall elect two additional Regional Vice Presidents. The regions paying the third, fourth, and fifth highest percentages of national dues shall each elect one additional Regional Vice President. All nominees must be either an owner, developer, builder, or operator currently serving in a senior level capacity in the rental housing industry, who is employed by or a representative of a member in good standing. Regional Vice Presidents (RVP) will be elected in a manner established by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Regional Vice Presidents' Term of Office. Each Regional Vice President shall serve a term of two (2) years. If, during their term of office, the member employing the Regional Vice President is no longer in good standing or the Regional Vice President is not employed by a member in good standing, the Regional Vice President will be automatically terminated from such office unless, within one hundred twenty (120) days, such Regional Vice President becomes a member or is employed by an owner/operator member in good standing. If the Regional Vice President relocates outside the Region, they will be automatically terminated from such office. If a vacancy should occur on the Board due to the loss of a Regional Vice President, such region shall elect another representative to fill the unexpired term in a manner established by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Term Limits: Effective with elections that are held on or after January 1, 2017, no Regional Vice President (Voting or Non-Voting) shall be eligible for election as a Regional Vice President after serving eight (8) years.

ARTICLE VII - ASSEMBLY OF DELEGATES, ANNUAL AND SPECIAL MEETINGS

Section 1. Delegates. Delegates shall be members of Affiliated Associations in good standing; and, where possible, who are not currently serving on the NAA Board of Directors; whereas delegate alternates may also include staff of affiliated associations in good standing. The Assembly of Delegates will be composed of up to two hundred and fifty (250) delegates. Each represented state, shall be allocated Delegates based upon the following:

- A. One delegate per state and the District of Columbia, and the balance of one hundred and ninety-nine (199) delegates to be allocated based on the following formula:
- B. Each state and the District of Columbia will be allocated a number of delegates based upon the percentage of NAA's national dues received as outlined in the Policies & Procedures. The allocation of delegates will be rounded off on a "whole-person" basis and there will be no fractional delegates. Any dispute relating to the rounding off of the number of delegates allocated to a particular state will be resolved by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. Each represented state may appoint one (1) alternate for each of its delegates. International members are not eligible to serve as a delegate.

Section 2. Appointment of Delegates. Delegates and alternates shall be selected and reported annually in a manner established by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Term of Delegates. Each Delegate shall serve a term of one (1) year beginning on January 1st of the calendar year.

Section 4. Meetings. The Assembly of Delegates shall hold a minimum of one annual meeting per year for the purpose of reviewing business transactions. Notice of an additional meeting shall be provided at least thirty (30) days before the time appointed for the meeting to Officers, members of the Board, Delegates and Alternates. The Assembly may meet in person or electronically.

Section 5. Election of Officers. The Assembly of Delegates, at its annual meeting, shall elect by majority vote, the following Officers who will serve a term of one (1) year: Chair-Elect; Vice Chair; Secretary, and Treasurer.

Section 6. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Assembly of Delegates may be called by the Chair of the Board, one-third (1/3) of the members of the Board of Directors or shall be called upon written request of not less than one-third (1/3) of the delegates. The Chair of the Board shall set the time and place of such special meeting within fourteen (14) days of such action. Notice of a special meeting shall be provided at least thirty (30) days before the time appointed for the meeting with a statement of time and place and information as to the subject to be considered; provided, however, that such thirty (30) day period may be waived by a determination of the Chair of the Board that an emergency exists.

Section 7. Quorum. A quorum at any meeting of the Assembly of Delegates shall exist when at least seventy-five (75) delegates are present. Upon achieving a quorum, a majority of the authorized votes cast by those present shall govern any action, except where these Bylaws specifically require a two-thirds (2/3) vote.

Section 8. Voting. At any meeting of the Assembly of Delegates, each state association, or affiliated association if there is no state association, shall be entitled to the number of delegates and votes as determined by Article VII, Section 1 of these Bylaws. The affiliated association shall provide credentials for one (1) or more persons to attend the meeting as a delegate or alternate empowered to vote. An individual may be a delegate for only one (1) association. Delegates may cast only one (1) vote on any one issue. The NAA staff, under the direction of the Secretary, shall inspect credentials and determine the total number of votes entitled to be cast on any question to be voted upon and preside over voting procedures. Any disputes regarding voting rights will be resolved by an ad hoc committee. This committee will include the Secretary and two members of the Board of Directors appointed by the Chair of the Board.

Section 9. Bylaw Amendments. These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Assembly of Delegates. Copies of any proposed amendment shall be submitted in writing to the Secretary not less than forty-five (45) days prior to the annual meeting or called meeting of the Assembly and submitted to the delegates thirty (30) days prior to the meeting.

Section 10. Authority and Responsibilities of the Assembly of Delegates.
