Budget and Finance Committee

The Budget and Finance Committee shall consist of the NAAEI President, NAAEI Vice President, NAAEI Secretary/Treasurer (Committee Chairperson), NAA President & CEO, NAAEI chief administrative officer, NAAEI Standing Committee Chairpersons, Investors (2), and one at-large member appointed by the Budget and Finance Committee Chair.

Appointment to NAA Investment Subcommittee

Two NAAEI Board members to be appointed to the NAA Investment Subcommittee each year.

VII. COMMITTEE CHARGES

Standing Committees

Budget and Finance Committee advises the NAAEI Board on the financial health of the Corporation. The Committee will review and present an annual budget for approval by the NAAEI Board. The Committee reviews regular financial statements, presents relevant financial information to the NAAEI Board and makes recommendations to the NAAEI Board, as necessary. The Committee will regularly evaluate the performance of NAAEI investments and advise on the development and implementation of the Institute's investment and reserve policies. It is responsible for approving the Education Institute's accounting policies and procedures and will review and approve the results of annual audits.

Curriculum Development Committee is charged with the development of continuing education programs and advises the NAAEI Board on content, delivery, and faculty administration. The Committee also oversees the curriculum and exam development of NAAEI's credential programs. The Committee will review and recommend the development of new curriculum, career tracks and other programming to maximize professional development and operating results.

Residential Property Management (RPM) Careers Committee promotes RPM careers and industry awareness and advises the NAAEI Board on recruitment and career outreach efforts. The Committee will seek partnerships for expanding, enhancing and retaining the industry talent pool to foster these relationships to develop a pipeline of talent, connecting them to industry members through local, state and national workforce and education initiatives.

Program Administration Committee advises and recommends policies for enrollment, exams, credentials, and continuing education credits. It advises the NAAEI Board on education and credentialing programs, monitors credential program requirements, and ensures consistency of program deliveries across all learning modalities.

Advisory Groups

NAAEI shall create and maintain Advisory Groups on an as needed basis for the purpose of providing opportunities for peer-to-peer learning and networking, as well as to advise NAAEI committees on specific interest areas. NAAEI has the following Advisory Groups:

- HR Advisory Group

The HR Advisory Group will identify and discuss current issues related to end-to-end talent management and development affecting member companies. The Advisory Group is comprised of senior human resource/talent and organizational development professionals of member companies.

Appendix 1: Election Process for NAAEI Officers

1. Outreach: At the Regional meeting in conjunction with Advocate, the Immediate Past President of NAAEI shall explain the election process at the regional meeting. On or before April 1, NAAEI staff will email all regional Association Executives in regions holding an election, and members of the NAAEI Board of Directors to inform them that applications for the officer position of Vice President of NAAEI is available.
2. Applications: All new individuals wishing to be considered for an NAAEI officer position will complete an application and submit it to NAAEI no later than April 30.
*No applications will be accepted after that date.
3. Application Review: NAAEI staff will review each application to ensure the candidate is qualified.
4. Announcement of Applicants: The NAAEI Board will be emailed completed applications by May 5 along with an electronic ballot.
5. Candidate Presentation: The candidates for NAAEI Vice President will be presented at the June meeting of the NAAEI Board of Directors.
6. Voting: The NAAEI Board of Directors will vote immediately following the presentation of candidates. The candidate receiving the most votes will be elected Vice President. Votes will be tallied by the Immediate Past President and an NAAEI Staff member.
7. Election Results: Candidates will be informed about election results during the June NAAEI Board of Directors meeting.
8. Installation: The Incoming NAAEI President, Vice President and Secretary/Treasurer are installed at the Assembly of Delegates Installation Dinner in November.

Appendix 2: Election Process for NAAEI Regional Representation

At the regional meeting held in conjunction with Advocate, each region that will be conducting an election will:

1. Make an Announcement of Election. The current RVPs will explain the election process and announce that an election will take place. The NAA Regional Election Committee (REC) will facilitate the voting process for NAAEI regional representatives at the regional meetings held in conjunction with Apartmentalize. The REC is created at the regional level.
2. Regional Elections: Regional elections for NAAEI representation shall take place as follows:
  - a. Odd number regions will elect their representatives in even numbered years to take office January 1 the following year.
  - b. Even number regions will elect their representatives in odd numbered years to take office January 1 the following year.

This method of electing regional representatives is in accordance with the NAA method of electing Regional Vice Presidents and allows for a staggered approach to NAAEI Board representation.

Between the Advocate conference and May 5th, the following will occur:

1. Notification of Election (by April 1). A notification that elections for regional representation on the NAAEI Board will be held and a call for applications will be sent by NAAEI staff to all local Delegates, Delegate Alternates, local and state Affiliate Presidents, and local Association Executives. The Association Executives shall email the notice to their affiliate membership.
2. Applications for Consideration (by April 30). All NAAEI candidate applications should be submitted no later than April 30. Candidates for the NAAEI Board may self-complete an application and do not need to be nominated.
3. Vetting of Applicants (by May 5). NAAEI staff will vet all applicants for NAAEI regional board positions based on criteria outlined in the NAAEI Bylaws and Governance Policies. They will transmit all applications to the NAA REC and copy the Association Executives.

Prior to Apartmentalize, NAAEI staff will create the Region's paper ballots or electronic ballot.

At the regional meetings held in conjunction with Apartmentalize, each NAAEI regional board candidate will be given an opportunity to present themselves.

At the regional meeting, the REC will:

1. Facilitate the Election. Regular elections will occur at the regional meetings held at Apartmentalize.

2. Distribute Ballots. Ballots will be distributed by the REC to the attendees present at the regional meeting.
3. Oversee Voting. Write-in votes will not be counted; no proxy votes will be accepted.
4. Counting the Votes. The results will be tallied by representatives of the NAA REC and announced immediately by the REC Chairperson or REC committee designate at the end of the voting period. In all cases, the candidate receiving the largest number of votes will be selected as the regional representative to the NAAEI Board. In the event of a tie vote, the REC will distribute ballots and ask for a second vote listing only the candidates that are tied.

Any challenges to the voting process or results will be handled at the discretion of the REC Chairperson and those REC committee members present. Any issues or irregularities shall be reported to NAAEI staff.
