

NAAEI Military Deployment Waiver Application

Military Deployment Definition:

Military Deployment is the assignment of military personnel to temporary, unaccompanied tours of duty. Military personnel who hold an NAAEI designation and who are able to show proof of being called to overseas active duty assignments(s), will not be required to obtain continuing education credit hours, or pay renewal dues during the time of the overseas active duty assignment(s). Those who are approved for NAAEI Military Deployment Waiver Status will be required to sign this waiver stating that they are unable to obtain Continuing Education Credit hours while on active duty.

Active duty military personnel who wish to return to the NAAEI designation status of "in good standing," must contact NAAEI upon their return from active duty and provide updated contact information. To contact NAAEI, call 703-518-6141 or education@naahq.org. Upon return from military deployment, you will be required to submit CEC's and pay renewal dues for the next renewal cycle.

During the approved military waiver period, the designate will be classified as "in good standing" in the NAAEI database and will continue to receive all designate benefits.
