

New Congress. New Opportunities.

In today's hyper-polarized and hyper-active political climate, it is more important than ever to communicate the rental housing industry's policy stances and priorities to Congress. Our elected officials want to meet directly with their constituents within the rental housing industry. There is no better way than at Advocate—NAA's annual advocacy conference held in March.

Help us lay a new cornerstone on which we can build
even more success
for the rental housing
industry as a whole.
